Local Rod And Gun Club Members Assist Sailor

Corned Beef And Cabbage Dinner --- Home Talent Show And Dancing To Feature St. Patrick's Day Celebration

Daly City boasts many sons o' Erin, and those who aren't natural born sons have affectionately adopted the Saint as their own and with him, his feast day on March 17. To celebrate St. Patrick's Day without a parade, a party, or corned beef and cabbage is unthinkable so The Holy Name Society and the Mothers' Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church is combining a little of all three for a really bang-up time on Thursday, March 17.

A corned beef and cabbage dinner with all the fixin's will be served in the school auditorium at 6:30 p.m. on that date. From 8 to 9 p.m. a home talent show will be featured. This will be followed by dancing to the music of a local orchestra until midnight.

All residents of Daly City are invited to come — and it's family night, so bring the children. Admission is $1.25 for dinner, entertainment and dancing, and 60 cents for the youngsters. Those coming for the entertainment and dancing only will be charged 75 cents.

Bill' Carrington, John Kapor, Walter Cavagnaro and Mrs. R. J. Ennis have charge of the St. Patrick's affair.

PAROLE VIOLATOR PICKED WRONG PLACE TO STAY OVERNIGHT

He thought nobody would think of looking for him in jail, but he didn't reckon with Officer Charles Munday of the Daly City police.

James Morgan, 32, alias Ted Scoggins, alias Jack Monthan, broke and homeless, applied for a night's lodging at the city jail Sunday night. Morgan was still there late this week.

Officer Munday had checked the records and found Scoggins listed as a Folsom parole violator wanted by the Sacramento police.

Morgan, who had served time for kidnap and robbery, is being held pending investigation by the state probation officer.

New Homes Are Under Construction

Work has started on sixteen homes in the recently annexed Westlake subdivision. Henry Doelger, builder, was issued permits this week. Estimated cost of construction was $152,169.

A. Nelson, builder, was issued permits this week for three homes to be built on the corner of San Diego and Los Olivos. Cost was estimated at $22,500.

Athletic Club Will Hold Dance

The Daly City Athletic club has announced that they will hold another dance on Saturday, April 2, at Lovchen Gardens, Colma.

Dance music by Roy Stefani and his orchestra will commence at 9 p.m.

Rod And Gun Club Members Rescue Sailor

Members of the Daly City Rod and Gun Club effected the rescue of a near drowned aviator who jumped into the Pacific Ocean from a plane eight miles off Point Montara last Sunday for the excitement.

The thrill seeker, James Coates of Fremont, Nebraska, had been planning the jump for some time, and had been preparing for it by taking long cold showers. Sunday was his J-day. He put on two chutes, climbed into a rented plane and headed for the ocean. But things didn't go as planned.

Entangled by his chutes, Coates had to struggle to cut himself out of 'chute lines and his clothes. By the time he was finished he couldn't find the life raft which his pilot had dropped for him. To top it off, he was eight miles off shore instead of the three miles he'd planned — but Mr. Coates saw no other recourse than to swim it.

Rod and Gun Club members who were out in the rented cruiser saw Coates' plane and the photography plane which had been following him, circling the water and sensed something was wrong. A little later Jim Fox, past president of the club, Harold Purser, current president, and Al Speers, president of the Coastside Sportsmen, and Argie Gardina, spotted the near-frozen sailor, and pulled him aboard the ship.

The sportsmen wrapped him in blankets, gave him some coffee and landed him at Princeton. He was driven to the Hunter's Point Naval Shipyard dispensary by Argie Gardina where he was treated for shock and exposure.

In the meantime Jim Fox and Al Speers rushed the photos and the story to the Call-Bulletin and scooped all the other papers in the area — much to the dismay of one of the members, George Scally, who also was on the trip. It seems as how Mr. Scally works for the San Francisco News.

At the Tuesday night meeting Mr. Fox was presented with a $25 check from Ed Neil, Hunting and Fishing editor of the News for the pictures and story. The check was turned over to the club.

American Legion Dinner And Dance Saturday, March 12

The annual birthday dinner and dance of the Daly City Post and Unit No. 410, American Legion, will be held at 7 p.m. March 12 in the Legion Hall. Mrs. Ethel Harris is chairman of the event.

Members of the Daly City Unit No. 410, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Rose Giorni, child welfare chairman, recently donated two huge baskets of groceries and a large assortment of children's clothing and bedding to members of a needy local veteran's family. A child's pair of shoes and a month's supply of fresh milk for the three children were donated by the unit as a whole.

Several unit members are helping out on the local Red Cross drive to which the unit sent a generous donation.

The 26th District of the American Legion Auxiliary will meet March 11 at 8:15 p.m. in the Brisbane Legion Hall. All members and friends are welcome to attend.

Jefferson Union High School Offers Broad Program Of Vocational And Pre-Vocational Training For Local Boys

Jefferson Union High School's new shops are in full operation and the boys of the school are availing themselves of the opportunities offered.

The machine shop is well equipped with lathes, milling machines, welding equipment, drill presses, etc. All of the machines, benches, etc. in this shop were obtained through the State Educational Agency for Surplus Property. Under this program schools buy the material for ten per cent of its estimated fair value.

A considerable amount of welding rod, and metal has also been obtained through the above channel for use in the machine shop.

Charles Slinger, a machinist with years of experience, is the instructor and during this, the first year, is building for a real vocational training program.

Most of the woodshop equipment was moved from the old shop. The latter is now used for the audio-visual program of the school.

Truman Pfeffer, instructor in woodwork, has both beginners and advanced students. He reports that all the boys have projects they are interested in making. Cedar chests and other articles of furniture are most popular. The students, of course, reimburse the school for the materials in the projects taken home.

"With these two new shops," states District Superintendent Stanford Hannah, "we are able to offer the boys of this district a reasonable broad program of vocational and pre-vocational training."

"In this community," continued Hannah, "this type of education is most important. Very few of our young people are interested in going on to a university so we must emphasize courses that prepare for the skilled and semi-skilled trades."

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY TELLS OF GOOD WORK BEING DONE TO HELP LOCAL NEEDY

How many of us at one time or another have seen a big red truck go past with a sign on the side of it reading, "Help Us Help Others"? And yet how many of us have ever stopped long enough to give a thought to the organization behind this motto? Yes, if you looked a little closer at this sign on the side of the truck, you'd notice that this motto is that of the Society of the St. Vincent de Paul. In this article we will endeavor to acquaint you with the aim, principles, and workings of this society.

First of all let it be known that we have a very active conference of the Society of the St. Vincent de Paul right here in Daly City. While there are conferences of this great charitable organization in every country of the world, our own conference, known as Our Lady of Perpetual Help conference, is primarily interested in the needs of the people right here in Daly City. Our particular conference here in Daly City has been in existence for over seven years, although the majority of the people have never been fully aware of its presence.

Now the first question that might arise in one's mind at this point is, why haven't we been more aware of this society before this if it does such good work among those in our own community? The answer to this question may be found if one stops to consider how this society operates. When a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, who are known as Vincentians, learns of a needy family he goes right to the family's home and finds out their needs first hand. He does not treat them as just a 'case' or a number, but endeavors to gain the confidence of those he is trying to aid. He then renders what material aid he is able to, in a sympathetic and confidential manner so as to reduce to a minimum the embarrassment of the party helped. It has been this phase of the society's work; namely to give aid to the needy in a strictly confidential manner, that has kept its existence out of the public's eye. In fact, it has been over backwards in this matter; a situation which they plan to rapidly overcome.

Many do not realize that although the Society of the St. Vincent de Paul is composed exclusively of Catholic men, their work of charity draws no boundaries concerning race, color, or religious beliefs. Up until now the conference of Our Lady of Perpetual Help of Daly City has had to rely mainly on the generosity of the parishioners of this particular Catholic Church; but there is no reason why everyone in Daly City shouldn't do his or her share in supporting such an organization as this, when you yourself may need their help at some future time.

In some of your neighborhood stores you may have noticed a box with a sign attached reading, "Help Us Feed Our Own. Kindly Deposit Any Canned Goods You Are Able to in the Box — St. Vincent de Paul." If your grocer does not have one of these boxes in his store, would you be kind enough to ask him to cooperate with such a worthy drive? The reason for putting "Feed Our Own" on the sign was to emphasize the fact that whatever canned goods are collected in this manner will be distributed to the needy of Daly City and not for anywhere else! Along with this drive for canned goods, you may also see in the near future, containers on the counters of your local merchants for the purpose of raising money for the St. Vincent de Paul Society of Daly City in order that they may continue the work they have been doing up to now.

PLAN TO CONVERT OLD NO. 40 CAR LINE INTO MODERN HIGHWAY PROPOSED -- TO COST ONE MILLION DOLLARS

It's been only two months since the last No. 40 trolley car rattled over the tracks to San Mateo on a cold winter's night—with a group of young, but nostalgic, railroad fans aboard—and came back home to go to the junk pile . . .

And already the experts have figured out what to do with the former Municipal Railway right of way.

They want to make a highway out of it, and then connect it up with the Old County road from San Mateo to Redwood City.

Judge Rudolph Rapsey of San Bruno, chairman of the group seeking to convert the former trolley line; E. Boris Stahm, San Mateo city planning engineer; and John Eranosian, chairman of the Belmont planning commission and originator of the program for improvement of the Old County road, all agreed that the idea is a feasible and possible method for giving the Peninsula a new secondary arterial for local and commuter traffic.

The suggested new highway would relieve traffic stress on El Camino Real and afford better traffic conditions in the towns and cities along the way, the experts said.

The experts also thought that the route could be extended as far as Mountain View or Sunnyvale by making similar links with other roads and improving them.

Here is the routing for the suggested new highway to Redwood City:

Starting at Colma and utilizing the former trolley line right-of-way southward to Burlingame avenue, continuing south along California and San Mateo drives to Poplar avenue in San Mateo and turning left on Poplar thru an existing railroad underpass to Delaware street and south on Delaware to East Sixteenth street and Sunnybrae boulevard, then continuing southward on an as yet unconstructed link of the San Mateo city major street plan into Pacific boulevard past Bay Meadows and connecting with the Old County road at East Hillsdale avenue to go thence southward to Rogers street in Redwood City.

Judge Rapsey said that the conversion of the former streetcar line into a highway from Colma to Burlingame (the northern link of the new plan) would cost about $150,000 per mile, or a total of about one million dollars. According to rough calculations, he says, this cost could be met by an annual tax cost of about $2 per lot, over a 10-year period.

The judge declared that Daly City and Colma will soon begin to realize the huge nuisance potentiality in the now abandoned trolley line as it begins to deteriorate and becomes subject to trespasses.

It would be necessary to obtain the right of way from the city of San Francisco and Rapsey feels that this is impossible although he said:

"The interests of San Francisco, and particularly the Downtown Association, are diametrically opposed to our interests and this association has a grip on the San Francisco government. The San Francisco interest is to foster mass transit aimed at funneling all business into that city's already overcrowded downtown area and they have no sympathy for our inter-connection needs here in San Mateo county.

"This matter of a new arterial in our county cannot wait much longer. It must be dealt with soon, or not at all."

Greyhound Bus Lines Under Fire From Peninsula Chambers of Commerce

William D. Soule, president of the San Mateo Chamber of Commerce, this week wrote a letter to F. W. Ackerman, president of the Pacific Greyhound Lines, charging that a recent decrease in bus fares, which ignored San Mateo, was outright unfairness and discrimination.

At the same time officials of the San Carlos, Millbrae, Menlo Park, and Burlingame chambers of commerce reported that they had taken similar action.

This action came after Greyhound decreased fares from South San Francisco, San Bruno, Belmont, and Redwood City to San Francisco by five cents, but "ignored" San Carlos, Millbrae, San Mateo, and Menlo Park.

Meanwhile, charges that the Greyhound company "is cold-blooded, only interested in making a profit and not in community service" were leveled here last night as several residents appeared before a council meeting to appeal for better transportation for high school students in the north end of the county.

A. H. Stoll, a member of the audience, said, "At one time the Peninsula Bus Co. of Burlingame asked the state public utilities commission for permission to establish bus service in this area of the county, but then Greyhound put in local shuttle service to prevent the granting of a franchise.

"Eighteen months later, when the state failed to grant a new franchise, Greyhound stopped its local service," Stoll charged.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

CROCKER

L6 are commencing work on decimals this week. It has been interesting to find all the ways in which decimals are used.

H5 and L6 classes saw the film "Yosemite" in connection with their work on California.

The students of the L5 and H5 grades welcomed William Keller, from San Francisco, to their class yesterday.

The L7 is beginning the study of fractions, while the H7 is finding how percentage is used in everyday living.

Beverly and Robert Dunham have moved to San Francisco and transferred to Denman Junior High School.

Two new students have become citizens of the Crocker student body this past week. Beverly Hamilton and Kenneth Maudy, both of them formerly of Woodrow.

The H7 and L8 were invited by the H8 to see the film "Tale of Two Cities" which was shown in the H8 grade classroom. The film makes clear the social life and economic times of the French revolution. The condition of the poor with their lack of rights was brought out in some of the scenes. The contrast between the form of government during this period in French history as contrasted with our American form of democracy was quite startling. As the 8th grades are studying the fight for the rights of "life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness" in our study of American history and the story of our Constitution, the film was most pertinent.

The 7th and 8th grade students of Crocker School are looking forward to attend the musicale at the Jefferson Union High School on Friday, under teacher supervision. Approximately one hundred and twenty-six students supervised by their principal and teachers will be present to enjoy the program, to which Superintendent Hannah has invited the 7th and 8th grades of the Jefferson Elementary School District.

JEFFERSON

Several of the fifth grade students participated in a musical given for the class last week. Lowell Klaisner played "Andantino" on his tonette, also "Up in a Swing" and "Flying Leaf" on the piano.

Ronald Casentini played "Melody" and "Gypsy Caravan"; Sondra Staghellini chose "The Argonaise," "Ballade," and "Spinning Song"; Alan Arneson, "The Rag Man"; Corinne Young, "Wee Folk's March"; Laverne Nannini, "Indian War Dance"; Carol Lee Bruce, "The May Zeffyrs." These were all piano selections.

The class vocal selections were "Yankee Doodle," "America the Beautiful" and "Hail to Washington."

The low fifth grade characterized the story "Lassie Come Home." Richard Rasor was the reader, Laverne Nannini was Lassie and John Sciutto was Joe. Helen Markel took the part of Priscilla and Carol Ann Bruce was Mother. James Giblin was Father, while Larry Grills enactd the part of the Duke.

Next week the class expects to have a prose and poetry dramatization.

Richard Stookey's book on stars was much in demand in the fifth grade last week. During their science period last week the class studied about the stars. Later a quiz program on the subject was given for the class.

The sixth grade were very interested in the program given on the Standard Broadcast Hour, Thursday morning. John Anderson brought his portable radio and the class joined in singing the familiar songs.

They are now planning an imaginary trip to the Hawaiian Islands. Interest is growing daily as the boys and girls receive answers to letters sent for information about travel by both steamship and airplane. Many items have been loaned by interested families and friends for the exhibit table.

The seventh grade this week formally served notice that they have formed a Radio and Drama Club, organized for the sole purpose of providing a positive outlet for certain dramatic inclinations.

The group headed by Carole Denkers is composed of Irene Braitsch, Carol Bortoli, Jim Hutchinson, Carol Sherer, and Jack Plunkett. The club has already started on a program of providing the primary grades with periodical plays and skits to suit the holidays and seasons of the year.

The classes also wishes to thank the music department of Jefferson High school for inviting them to a musicale last Friday. The class appreciated very much the musical display of opportunities which they will some day achieve in high school.

They expressed the opinion that they would again be pleased to attend other programs given by their 'big brothers' from the high school.

In conjunction with their social studies unit on early civilizations, pictures depicting the probable glimpses of early man have been placed along the seventh grade hall board. Scenes of early life and changes through the years are shown in striking color.

Also shown are picturesque mountings of the glories of the ancient Nile civilization which endeavor to provide a splendid visual aid for understanding the culture of an early and proud nation.

Jefferson's Buzzbombs composed of athletes from the lower grades annexed the just concluded District Basketball Championship last week by defeating a strong Our Lady of Perpetual Help team 18 to 12.

Outstanding players all, they included such players as Al Lagomarsino, Harry Youtsey, Lowell Creighton, Frank Bortoli, Bob McDonald, Joe Bocci, Herb Frost, Richard Guisti, John Anderson, Al Figone, Robert Rocchi, and Fred Bertetta.

Red Cross Drive Far From Quota

"Give Where You Live," the Red Cross slogan hasn't hit home in Daly City, according to Mrs. Anne Ingersoll, local chairman. Of the $2,000 quota set for Daly City only $546.50 has been collected, including both residential and business sections.

Complications arise in every drive because of the many people from Daly City who are working in San Francisco and are asked to donate at their place of employment.

Mrs. Ingersoll also requested that those who have donated to place their stickers on the window so that solicitors will not have to double trace their steps.

Being short of solicitors in Daly City, anyone desiring to make a direct contribution can send it to Red Cross headquarters at 260 Primrose road, Burlingame.

Malpractice Suit Against S.F. Doctor Filed Last Week

Charging that his negligence caused her to lose her leg, Mrs. Pasquina Turrianno, through her attorney, Tom Bocci, last week filed a $151,200 suit for damages against Dr. E. P. Genochio of San Francisco for malpractice.

Mrs. Turrianno said that she was under the care of Dr. Genochio from March 1 to April 14 and that she had been tested by him for diabetes but that he had told her she did not have the disease. The plaintiff further said that during the period stated, she repeatedly called Dr. Genochio in regards to a severe pain in her toes and legs but that he refused to do anything for her. Finally, she said, the physician informed her she was a diabetic and that gangrene had set in and "to get another doctor."

Mrs. Turrianno, who was living at the time with her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Vallernino of Daly City, subsequently had her leg amputated by another doctor.

Local Officials Attend Meeting In South S.F.

Mayor Paul Green and Councilmen Edward Mooney and Fred Bertetta attended a meeting of mayors and councilmen in South San Francisco recently.

At the meeting it was decided, among other things, to investigate the possibility of obtaining state aid to support school transportation from San Bruno and Millbrae to Burlingame High school.

Gas Station Men Ask County Ban On Self-help Stations

The San Mateo county chapter of the Northern California Service Station Operators' association has written urging the board of supervisors to consider passing a law against self-help service stations in unincorporated areas.

The self-help stations have already been banned in Daly City and in most other incorporated areas.

Polio Victims Made Happy With Video Installation

The Video-Sound Service of 6189 Mission street was one of many instrumental in making a polio victim a happier one recently. The victim is Jean Compton of Tamalpais valley, who has been in the Children's hospital since October, 1947. She is still unable to turn or lie in any position except on her back.

The story began when Brooks Hinton of Mill Valley informed Cactus Jack, Jeannie's desire for a television set. Mrs. Ann Finkel, proprietor of a furniture warehouse in Oakland, heard about it and donated a television set. The antenna and installation were done free of charge by the Video-Sound Service.

Since there is only one set in the main building, and there are so many polio cases, Mr. Hinton is now accepting donations and intends to purchase a set at a time and install them in the larger wards. Any donations may be sent to "Television Fund," care of Brooks Hinton, 24 King street, Mill Valley.

BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY MARCH 11

The Crocker and Perpetual Help basketball teams will vie for the championship of the "A" division of the Jefferson Elementary school district at 4 p.m. March 11 at Lincoln Park.

Crocker and Perpetual Help are traditional rivals on the basketball court. Last year the Perpetual Help team dropped the title to an aggressive Crocker five in an overtime period. Since then the Perpetual Help boys have been seeking revenge and now have a chance to push Crocker from the top.

The records of both teams this season follow the same pattern as last year. Both have five wins and one loss. Each team defeated Woodrow Wilson and Jefferson twice while Crocker defeated Perpetual Help once and dropped another game to them.

Probable starting lineup is as follows:

Crocker: Dave Martinez and Jim Herman, forwards; Joe Lewkowitz, center; Martin Vereece and Jack Phillips, guards.

OLPH: Ray Rosa and John Madden, forwards; Rich McDonough, center; Don Rode and John Robinson, guards.

The complete roster of the two teams is as follows:

Crocker: Harold Diamond, Dave Martinez, Martin Vereece, Jim Herman, Joe Serrito, Jack Phillips, Joe Lewkowitz, Bill Valentino.

OLPH: Don Rode, John Robinson, John Madden, Ray Rosa, Rich McDonough, Gerald Deafus, Joe Bonacorso.

Martin Vereece and Jack Phillips of the Crocker squad are veterans from last year's championship team while Ray Rosa is the only first string man left from Perpetual Help's 1948 club.

Both Coach Bill Tergus of Crocker and Father William Stewart of Perpetual Help have been giving their teams offensive and defensive patterns that they believe will help their boys win the crown.

A trophy will be presented to the school whose team wins and individual basketball charms will be awarded to members of the team.

JEFFERSON HIGH GIRLS' SPORTS

By Claire Allen

Freshman and sophomore basketball will be played March 11, 14, 16, and 18. Eight practices have already been played. The four necessary games for the 25 points are March 21, 23, 25, and 28.

The junior and senior basketball schedule is every Tuesday and Thursday until March 24. Then the four big games begin which will be held March 29, 30, and 31, and April 1. Those of you who would like to see your daughters or friends play may come to watch.

The University of California sent a letter to Jeff and asked the president of the G.P.A.L., Jane Bernath, to make a speech at the coming play day over there. Each school will speak on G.A.A. activities of the school. This ties in with the student conferences which a lot of these girls attend.

Lime on the Farm

Lime has two main functions on the farm. (1) It corrects the acid and alkaline needs of the soil. (2) It supplies plant food and brings about many secondary effects which affect the growth of plants such as the immobilization of toxic substances and the increase in availability of plant nutrients. The practice of liming was known before the Christian era.

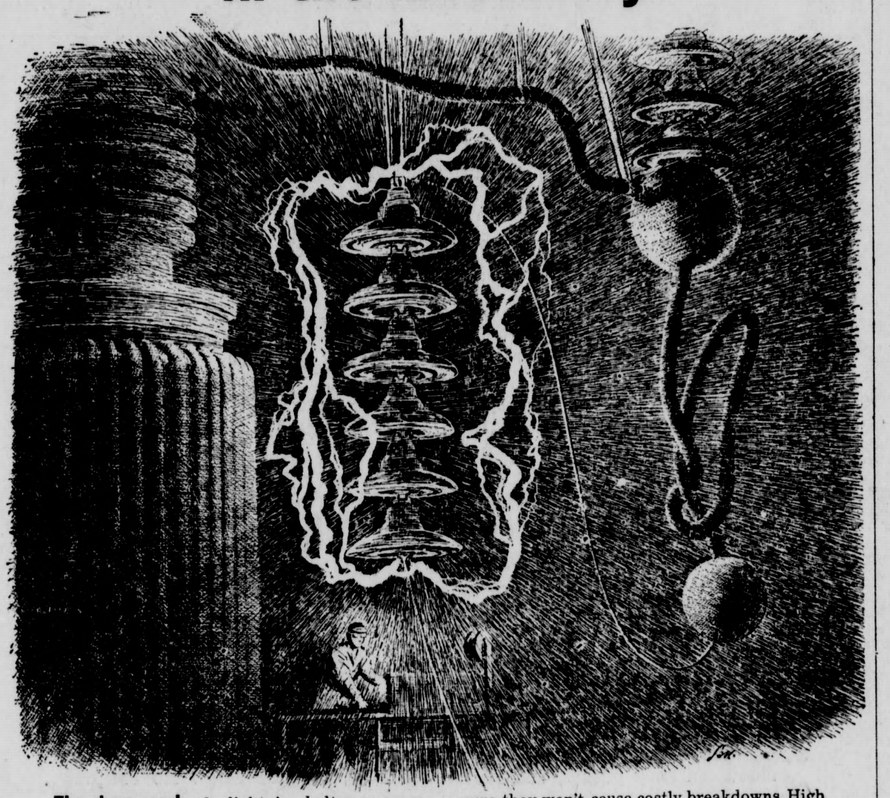
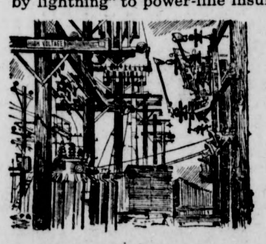
to help keep your electric bill low...

P.G. and E. makes lightning in the laboratory



The sharp crack of a lightning bolt may seem out of place in a lab... but it's one of the many ways P. G. and E.'s Bureau of Tests and Inspection helps keep your electric bills among the lowest in the nation. Technicians give this "trial by lightning" to power-line insulators to make sure they won't cause costly breakdowns. High voltages are built up on one side of an insulator until the electricity arcs around it through the air...a miniature lightning flash. If the insulator "punctures" or if the flash comes too soon at too low a voltage, the insulator is rejected.



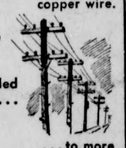
The life of power poles depends on rot preventives below ground. P. G. and E. tests these, too... along with thousands of other things such as the breaking strength of cross-arms and the conducting efficiency of the wire they support.

Lower electric bills and dependable service are the result of these and other tests. They all add up to longer lasting, harder working, more economical materials in P. G. and E.'s generating plants and transmission lines.

For the record

Last year the Bureau inspected some 6,000,000 pounds of copper wire.

This wire helps distribute 553,000 electrical horsepower added since last May...



...to more than 60,000 new customers connected in 1948.

Brilliant new DE SOTO gets tremendous welcome from public!

Come in and see "The Car Designed With YOU in Mind"

IT'S BRAND-NEW... so new that there aren't many on the streets yet. But already it's a tremendous success. And it's easy enough to see why.

Everybody wants a smart, good-looking modern car. But most of us don't want to pay a penalty for being modern. We want more room... more comfort ...more visibility... not less.

That's where De Soto scores. It's got those long, low lines. But you don't have to wriggle into it. It has big wide doors. Plenty of headroom, too. The roof won't scrape your hat, no matter where you sit. It's roomier than ever.

It's no use having bigger windows and windshields unless you can see out of them. In the new De Soto you can... because you're sitting on chair-high seats. Even a short person can see over the steering wheel. Even a six-footer won't hit his knees on it.

You don't have to enlarge your garage to hold the new De Soto. You can still change a tire yourself. And a dent in the fender doesn't mean an expensive body repair job. Come in and see this wonderful car that lets you drive without shifting. Compare it with any other at any price. Then decide.

Tune in "HIT THE JACKPOT" every Tuesday night, all CBS stations

Lomita Park Plans New Fire Building

Lomita Park needs a new fire building and the members of the fire department will build it themselves if they can't get it any other way, Chief Harry Hayden has announced.

The present building is in bad shape with a leaky roof, shaky foundations, and in danger of falling. There are some finances in the district treasury, but not enough to hire a contractor, Hayden said.

HOW-TO-FIX-IT

By Tom Gregory

ONE OF THE MINOR IRRITATIONS THAT MOST HOUSEWIVES FACE AT LEAST ONCE A WEEK IS A SAGGING CLOTHESLINE THAT THREATENS TO LET THEIR FRESH WASH DRAG ON THE GROUND.
AN EFFECTIVE CLOTHESLINE PROP CAN BE MADE FROM A FORKED POLE AND A COIL SPRING. THE ARMS OF THE FORKED END ARE NOTCHED TO RECEIVE THE LINE, WHILE THE SPRING, FITTED WITH A HOOK AT ONE END, IS FASTENED IN THE CROTCH WITH A LARGE SCREW EYE. HOOKED OVER THE LINE, THE SPRING HOLDS IT IN THE NOTCHES AND AT THE SAME TIME TAKES UP MUCH OF THE SLACK, KEEPING THE LINE TAUT AND THE WASH OFF THE GROUND.
STRONG HOOK
IF YOU HAVE OCCASION TO PUT UP A CLOTHESLINE ON THE PORCH, OR IN THE KITCHEN, A SIMPLE DEVICE FOR KEEPING IT TIGHTLY STRUNG IS TO PASS THE LINE THROUGH A HOOK AND TIE A WEIGHT TO THE END OF IT. PULL DOWN THE LINE TO HANG CLOTHES, RELEASE IT AND THE WEIGHT WILL PULL IT UP TIGHTLY.

Capistrano's Summer Guests

BY LEE PRIESTLEY

THE wind blew unseasonably cold one early spring day in 1776, making the sunny California morning chilly for the young padre who walked in the gardens of the mission of San Juan Capistrano. As he paced with bent head, thinking of St. Joseph, whose feast day it was, he heard excited cries outside the high walls that separated the mission from the village.

"Hay vienen las golondrinas!" the children shouted. "The swallows are coming!"

Lifting his head, the young padre saw a small cloud against the blue of the morning sky. As he watched the cloud grew larger and larger. With a thrill of excitement and awe, the priest saw the great moving mass obscure the light of the rising sun! The quiet was broken with the sound of thousands of beating wings. The golden-breasted swallows of San Juan Capistrano were coming home across the trackless miles of ocean!

Twittering and darting in excitement, the birds swooped down to the eaves of the village tavern where their nests had been the summer before. Then the birds discovered that their treasured mud homes, to which the same swallow families return every year, were gone. Now the boys on the ground began pelting the birds with clods and sticks.

AS the birds flew about in circling panic, the young padre saw the tavernkeeper rubbing his hands together with satisfaction and urging the boys to further efforts.

"Why are you disturbing the birds?" the priest called angrily. "They only wish to return to their nests in the eaves of the tavern."

The tavernkeeper stared at the young man fiercely. "And do they pay rent for the space they take, Padre?" he demanded. "No! Every spring they plaster more mud upon my tavern, and every spring they twitter louder and dart about my head!" He stopped to laugh loud and long. "But this year there will be none of that. I have torn down their nests and if I must hire every boy in the village to throw sticks and stones, those beggar birds shall build no more!" He gestured angrily. "Faster, boys! Drive them away!" Then he turned to the padre again. "If your heart is touched, good father, by these homeless ones, why do you not invite them to the Mission?"

The young priest looked sternly at the man. "Thank you," he said. "That is exactly what I shall do!"

TURNING back into the Mission garden, the young priest found a shovel and went to work. Industriously he turned the soil in a part of the grounds, then watered it well. Again he turned over the soil and again watered it. Before long he had a fine large mudhole prepared!

The distracted birds saw the mudhole. They began to circle in larger and larger numbers around the young priest's head. Then a pair darted down to carry away the ready-made building material to the eaves of the Mission. Other birds followed until they were all busily building new mud homes under the protection of the good priest.

All through the long summer the swallows lived at the Mission. On San Juan day, Oct. 23, they flew south in a great rush of wings. When spring approached again, the good padre watched for their return, wondering if they would come again to the Mission. On the eve of St. Joseph's day, which is March 19, he prepared again the inviting mudhole in the garden.

Rushing in from the sea in a great cloud, the swallows rapturously greeted their friend, the priest, and set about repairing their nests under the eaves.

Every year since that time the golden-breasted birds have returned to the Mission of San Juan Capistrano with almost miraculous regularity on March 19 and they go away on Oct. 23.

THE high school girl who loves to wear wide, dark, solid-colored skirts can start a fad if she feels that way. Just cut out the letters of your first name, using gay print cloth. Applique them all around the hem, repeating the word over and over. Frame this original border, top and bottom, with matching bias binding. Your friends are bound to "ooh" and "aaah" over this original outfit, especially if a bit of the material is salvaged and pinked into inch-wide strips. Wear a length as a wrist band. More of it can be tied in your hair.

"How do you tell a friend that it's time to go home?" Lots of boys want to know. They find it hard to explain that families expect males (even as females) to get in by curfew. One way to sidestep the embarrassment of breaking up a party is to say lightly, "I have to get my beauty sleep." Or mention an early morning appointment.

Next time you're bus riding with a friend and get bored, try this game: Say, "I'm thinking of a word that rhymes with chair." He should guess by defining rather than naming the word. "Is it your crowning glory?" "No, it's no hair." "Does it mean extra?" "No, it's not spare." "Is it a fruit?" "Yes, it's a pear." Don't become so absorbed in this pastime that you'll miss your street!

Men and women are still enrolling in the numerous classes offered by the college adult center for evening work. Since last September an accumulated total of six thousand students has taken the evening class work.

Paul W. Travis, lecturer, photographer, and traveler, will address the Community Hall audience Monday evening, March 14, on the topic of "Greece and Italy, Ancient and Today." The public is invited without charge to the lecture in the college auditorium at 7:30 p.m. In his pictures Travis will show historic places in both countries, the Acropolis, the Plains of Marathon, St. Paul's home, the Dardanelles, Mars Hill, the Appian Way, Arch of Constantine, Vatican City with St. Peter's, works of famous painters and sculptors, the Leaning Tower of Pisa, the Catacombs and many more.

Rain has held up the spring schedule of sports at the college, causing the postponing of a number of events. All sports will get started this week end if weather permits practice and gives dry fields and track for the events.

The museum at the college has moved into larger quarters on the Baldwin campus and now has room to display the numerous articles collected and pertaining to Indian, Spanish, Mexican and American periods of life on the Peninsula. The public is invited to see the exhibits afternoons.

HI-LITES From Jefferson Union High School

by Carol Donaldson

Promotion to achieve the goal of 100 per cent student body card sales is being pushed currently at Jeff. At a recent assembly a very fetching ensemble of "chorus boys" were featured to promote the sales. Special attention is being given this activity during the term because of interclass competition.

A very educational movie was presented recently in assembly. It was entitled "It's up to You" and was sponsored by the Standard Oil Company of California. It contained a great many really enlightening facts about the operation of an automobile. The film showed several authentic tests taken recently. After the movie, Sergeant Eagen of the State Highway Patrol answered several questions asked by students.

The students from the Sharp Park area operate their own teenage affairs and are doing a great job of it. One of their especially commendable efforts is a dance to be held in one month at Vallemar, the proceeds of which will go for the benefit of cancer research.

Tickets for the sock-hop are going very slowly. The dance is to be on March 18 and ticket sales will continue the rest of the week.

Dinner-Dance At Club Casino

One of the world's strangest locations for a settlement is at the bottom of Grand Canyon where the Indian community of Supai, Ariz., is located. A helicopter delivered parts for a quonset hut used as a church there. The community post office is one of the few to which United States mail is delivered by horse and mule.

Remarkable Rose Bush

When safe to proceed, the driver may do so, and vehicles approaching the intersection on the through highway are required to yield the right of way.

Walk on left facing traffic, the safety rule long advocated by the California State Automobile Association, is recognized by the Vehicle Code, which provides that "no pedestrian shall walk upon any roadway outside of a business or residential district other than close to his left-hand edge of the roadway."

Reason for "Oxford"

Low shoes are called "oxfords" because they were first made and worn at Oxford, England.

Canada Ranks Second

Canada is the second largest country on the face of the earth, exceeded only by Soviet Russia.

But Mrs. Homemaker—
What about prices that are not in the ads?
Checking food ads is a good way of learning about low prices. But the ads can't tell the whole story. At best they include only a small percentage of the items on your entire shopping list. So savings made on "specials" can easily be wiped out unless your other purchases are made at the right prices.
That's why the basic part of Safeway's pricing policy says that every item—we repeat—every item must be priced low. Consider what this means to you. It means savings right down the line... not just on our advertised specials, but on everything.
You'll find too, that Safeway is quick to pass on to customers the benefits of any reductions made possible by changes in market conditions. Watch for special markers on our shelves, calling attention to reductions.
Remember, it's easy to cancel savings from "specials" unless other prices are low, too. So start today to save at Safeway, where all prices are always low.

HI-LITES AT C.C.S.F

By Roy Hurlbert

Recent addition of a new element in and about the City College plant—the campus cop patrol—has made for better adherence to routine musts and must-nots so common in violation in the past.

The neatly attired group, with brand spanking new uniforms, unanimously approved the nomination of Leland Johnstone as their initial "Chief" last week. Garret Kyle will assist Johnstone as his first lieutenant in casing the jernt for similar improvements in the abide by the rules movement. Infractions are becoming less in evidence since the Murphys went on the prowl, according to Fred Fitzgerald, law enforcement instructor, who helped author the venture.

City College's version of a dance pavilion, the war-time temporary auditorium built for the Waves stationed here during the hostility period, will house the farmer garb Associated Men Students' dance tonight, to be staged in typical rural fashion. Walt Tolleson and his music-makers will provide the desired background for the serene barnyard atmosphere.

A dual treat is in store for former Ramland graduates some two weeks hence when the Alumni Association will hold its Charter Day feastfest to be followed by after-dinner entertainment supplied by the Opera Workshop in their presentation of the Marriage of Figaro. Because of limit of hall space, preference will be shown to alumni members in good standing in applying for ducats for the affair. What few are available go at two dollars a piece and can be obtained by request, on the first come, first served basis.

Rally committee head Laine Currie indicated that bringing outside talent and name musicians for future college hour gatherings is being planned now in the form of efforts to contact obliging and available professionals. Over the last few semesters localites have wholeheartedly shown their enthusiasm for top flight attractions and would no doubt welcome the same with similar support.

Slim Gaillard, master impressionist of the bebop, was the first of the sought-afters, and appeared here briefly two weeks ago.

ATHLETIC DOINGS

Ralph Hillsman's robust Ram basketballers captured the NCJCC championship last week as they swept two straight from northern division standout Grant Tech, in a heated playoff series.

The conference crown clincher came last Friday night in Sacramento where the hilltoppers knocked off the usurping attempts of a good Saracen quintet, 60-45, after they edged by the visitors, 64-55, in annexing the first of the series two nights previous on the campus court. With the double conquest of the capital city cagers, the Rams wound up their seasonal chores with a spectacular slate of 28 wins in 29 trips to the center circle, which placed them locical favorites to sweep the western regionals, commenced yesterday in Sacramento, with the inner to represent this area in the national finals which are set for Hutchinson, Kansas, later this month.

Entered in the elemination sessions, which will see a victor crowned tomorrow evening, are better-than-average squads from Modesto, Marin, Menlo, Sacramento, Visalia, Santa Rosa, and Visalia J.C. lone southern threat. With the exception of the Sacramento five, the Rams have thumped all other of the contenders at least once over the concluded campaign, but each and all could be a thorn in the side to spoil the near perfect slate-fulfillment of the local casabans.

ODDS AND ENDS

Another Phelan & Ocean contingent desirous of applying their wares in competitive channels is the City College debating team directed by Michael Griffin. Tentatively in line for verbal opposition from the Rams idealists are tongue twisters with San Mateo, Marin, and Santa Rosa JC's as well as exchanges with San Jose State, California, and St. Mary's.

Area of Illinois

Illinois has a total land area of 35,806,000 acres.

The new look applied to the south section of the old campus, the refurbished lawn, makes for easy eye comfort and future reclining between classes when Old Sol will shed forth with continuous fair weather.

HEED SPEED

"Breakneck" speed on the highway describes the result all too frequently achieved by the reckless driver, observes the California State Automobile Association in urging drivers to remember that safe speed is speed which is reasonable and prudent under prevailing conditions.

Veterans Weekly News Column

Gratuity payments to veterans for benefits administered by Veterans Administration are tax-free and need not be considered in computing income tax, VA said today.

Tax-exempt VA payments include the following:

Subsistence allowances for veterans training in schools, on farms and on-the-job under the GI Bill and Public Law 16 (for the disabled).

Payments by VA to be applied to veterans' GI loans. Under the GI Bill, VA pays the lender an amount equivalent to four per cent of the guaranteed portion of the loan to be credited to the veteran's account.

Readjustment allowances, paid under provisions of the GI Bill, for veterans' periods of employment and self-employment.

Disability compensation and pensions paid to veterans for both service-connected and nonservice-connected disabilities.

Grants for paraplegic veterans for homes designed for wheelchair living.

World War I emergency officers' retirement pay.

Question: I served more than 3 years in the U. S. Army during World War II. I now wish to take institutional on-farm training and would like to know how much training I will be permitted to take?

Answer: An institutional on-farm training course may be as long as, but no longer than, is necessary to meet your individual training needs or until you have exhausted your four-year period of eligibility.

Question: Do I have to meet any set standard if I am taking an on-farm training course?

Answer: Yes. Once you start training, it is your responsibility to meet the standards of progress set by the institution in which you are enrolled. If you fail, your benefits will be discontinued.

Question: What farming tools and farming implements do I get while I am taking an on-farm training course under the GI Bill?

Answer: VA will furnish you with no tools or farm equipment since these are articles with which the farm must be equipped to meet the provisions of the law. However, books and incidental supplies required for classroom work will be furnished you.

Question: I am a veteran of World War II. What is the latest date on which I can start on-farm training under the GI Bill?

Answer: You may commence training within four years from July 25, 1947, or within four years from your discharge or separation from service, whichever is later.

Have Fish Ears?

Snakes and fish have ears but these ears have no outside openings. They "hear" mostly through vibrations in the ground or water.

More "Dope" On The New Chevrolet

Engineering studies of the 1949 Chevrolet ventilation system show that with windows closed and air duct valves open, car interior air is changed approximately two and one-half times each minute at 30 miles an hour. At 60 miles an hour, continues the report, the frequency of air changes is doubled.

According to the company, the fact will prove a worthwhile safety feature in certain types of damp spring weather when windshields and windows have a tendency to fog. Body glass will stay clear without the necessity of providing drafts from open ventipanes.

The new Chevrolet ventilation system includes screened openings behind the radiator grille leading through tubes to outlets under the dash. The volume of air issuing into the passenger compartment is controlled by knobs beneath the instrument panel. The system is standard equipment on all Chevrolet pasenger cars.

HIGH SPEEDS AND OLD CARS

High speeds and old cars go ill together, declares the National Automobile Club. Many cars and tires on the road today have seen long years of service. Motorists should remember that defects developed through these long years can mean sudden death at high speeds.

T. V. "Here To Stay" Says Stanford Dean

Television is definitely here to stay, according to Dr. Frederick E. Terman, dean of the School of Engineering, Stanford University.

The statement was made by Dr. Terman in an address to the San Francisco Bond Club. Pointing up the tremendous growth of television is the great increase in rate of production. Some 800,000 units were produced in 1948, he said, compared to a total of 100,000 produced in 1947. He predicted 1949 production would reach 1,500,000 sets.

Dr. Terman declared he did not look for any substantial lowering of prices, despite general acceptance of television and the popular demand, because of the inherent complexity of sets. He expressed the belief that a twelve-inch tube will assume a dominant position in the field, making larger pictures possible. The present ten-inch tube gives a picture only six by eight inches.

Unsurfaced Roads

About 32 per cent of the country roads in America are still unsurfaced, but present programs will reduce this by about 5 per cent within the next year.

Dion R. Holm New S.F. City Attorney

For the first time in more than two decades, San Francisco has a new city attorney, Dion R. Holm.

Holm received the appointment from Mayor Elmer E. Robinson, to succeed John J. O'Toole, who resigned after 23 years of service to the city.

More than 2,000 city officials and friends of both men attended a farewell and welcome ceremony in the rotunda of the city hall, when Holm was sworn in by Superior Judge Melvin I. Cronin. A native of San Francisco, Holm was named assistant city attorney in 1926.

Sermon Topic Is Announced For Ocean View Church

Sunday school will be held at 9:45 a.m. as usual.

Ever wonder what happens to the firearms sometimes forfeited by Fish and Game Code violators as part of their sentence?

Portions of a two-year collection of confiscated weapons — 292 rifles and guns — will be offered in a sealed bid sale conducted by the Division of Fish and Game in five district offices Saturday, March 12.

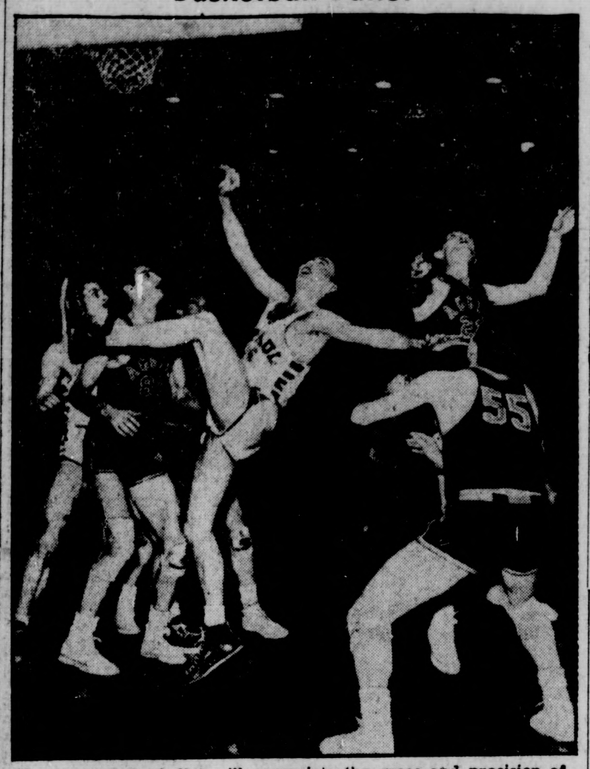
Ranging from single-shot 22's to expensive shotguns and deer rifles, the appropriated artillery will be available for inspection only on the day of sale. Condition of the pieces is graded from poor to excellent, with no guarantee made by the State agency.

Between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. individual bids will be accepted at Fish and Game headquarters on the following numbers of weapons: San Francisco, 80; Los Angeles, 70; Sacramento, 75; Fresno, 50; and Redding, 17.

Proceeds from the sale of firearms collected by California judges go to the State's Fish and Game Preservation Fund.

Confiscation of firearms in Fish and Game Code violation cases is a privilege of the sentencing authority.

Basketball Ballet



Devotees of the ballet will appreciate the grace and precision of these rising and falling basketball players tussling for a rebound shot under the basket. Coming down, with arms and legs akimbo, is Gordon Gillespie (92) of De Paul University. The action took place during De Paul-Oklahoma A & M game in Chicago, which the Aggies won 37-26.

DRIVING CHECK HELPFUL

The manner in which a car is operated very frequently is a definite key to the service it requires, points out the National Automobile Club. This is not a new idea but it is one that is lost to sight by many car owners much of the time. Because he had to have a new clutch plate installed recently a veteran motorist discovered he had been riding the clutch. He would not have believed it of himself if he hadn't checked up.

TONTO NATIONAL MONUMENT

Tonto National Monument, located just east of Roosevelt Dam on the Apache Trail in Arizona, is reported by the National Automobile Club to contain prehistoric cliff-dwellings in an excellent state of preservation.

Catskill Mountains

Catskill mountains attain a maximum height of 4,205 feet.
